Description

A NEW INTERPRETATION OF MEDITERRANEAN ARCHITECTURE BY THE SEA
Located in one of the most exclusive and sought-after locations in Benissa Costa, Villa Indra represents a new generation of homes where architecture, design, and the surrounding environment are seamlessly integrated.
Inspired by the most authentic essence of the Mediterranean and reinterpreted through a contemporary lens, this exclusive villa combines organic lines, fine materials, and a carefully curated selection of finishes to create an elegant, luminous, and timeless home.
Far from the cold and repetitive aesthetic of conventional cubic homes, Villa Indra embraces a warm and sculptural architecture, where curved forms, the texture of natural materials, and the integration with the landscape generate a unique personality.
Each room has been designed to maximize natural light and enhance the connection between interior and exterior spaces. The expansive glazed surfaces offer unobstructed views of the Mediterranean Sea, while the terraces, gardens, and pool areas invite you to experience the authentic Mediterranean lifestyle year-round.
Villa Indra is not just a house; it's a residential experience designed for those who value privacy, architecture, and quality of life in one of the most privileged locations on the Costa Blanca.
One of Villa Indra's most exceptional features is its open views of the Mediterranean Sea.
The house's orientation and the design of its spaces allow you to enjoy the sea from the main rooms, integrating the landscape as part of the architecture.
The terraces, pool, and outdoor spaces have been carefully designed to make the most of the views and natural light throughout the year.
Here, the Mediterranean is not simply a backdrop; it's an integral part of the daily experience of living in the house. Plot: 646.80 m² Built area: 128.35 m² Interior usable area: 104.00 m²
